

The Seed That Falls On Good Ground

David A. Gatwood

1. You have visited the land and watered it; you have enriched it, greatly have you enriched it. Your watercourses overflow with it, and your paths are strewn with a rich harvest; God's watercourse is filled; the untilled meadows overflow with it, you have prepared the furrows, and rejoicing clothes the hills.

Thus have you prepared the seed: dressing the furrows, breaking up its clods, sowing the seed with sowers, and blessing the field.

4. The fields are garmented with flocks and the valleys blanketed with grain. They shout and sing for joy.
