

Teach Me Your Ways

Responsorial Song from Psalm 25 for Sunday 3B

All

Teach me your ways, — your truth, — and show — your mer - cy and love.

Teach me your ways, show me your paths,
guide me in wisdom and goodness.
You are my God, you hold me in life,
you keep me, your love and compassion.
Your promises are from age to age,
rich in compassion and mercy.

Things I have done with in my youth,
you wipe away all my transgressions.
Upright and good, truth is your Name,
would you refuse your forgiveness?
Raising the poor, you lift their oppression,
leading the humble to justice.
