

From The Depths

Responsorial Song from Psalm 130 for Sunday 10B

Tony Barr

In your Name we find mer-cy, a life - you all mea - sure.

1. From the depths I cry out to You, would you hear me when I cry?
Let my voice rise up and be heard,
because but listen and answer!
2. Should you mark each day that I call?
Should I ever rise again?
Are you there when night has returned?
Would I find you hidden in silence?
3. For in you I have trusted, O Lord,
your word I seek my life.
As the watchman looks for the dawn,
even more I wait for your coming.
4. Up from sleep, the dawn is at hand!
I awake, the time is near!
Close at hand the One we await,
with the sunrise joy shall transform us.
5. As the watchman longs for the dawn,
so I wait the light.
And as justice covers the earth,
we embrace the new day of promise.
6. On that day, restore us to life,
may good fortune be our lot!
As we turn from darkness to light,
so the pathway leads us to freedom.
