

TASTE AND SEE

Responsorial Song from Psalm 34 for Sunday 21B
for Cantor, Assisting, Descant & SATB with Keyboard, Woodwinds & Guitar

TONY BARR

Taste and see, taste and see, taste and see: God is wisdom and light.

I will sing in thanksgiving each moment of life,
day after day I am mindful of you,
rejoicing in you for you show me comfort for have you not claimed to be God of the God looks with favor on all who call on his name, attending to them in their calamities.

The wicked shall wither and be turned as stubble,
their memory erased from the face of the earth.

The just will find help in every calamity, in anguish,
in God they find peace when they are assailed.
Who is their helper when their hearts have been broken?
Who will bring them down when spirits are crushed?

Troubles appear to them, but they are not on them,
deliverance appears to them, and they are fulfilled.
Yet One is at hand to catch them from the jaws of death,
not one of them will be broken with God's refection!

VERSES Psalmist (Cantor)

1. I will sing in thanksgiving each mo - ment of life, for every day I am mind - ful of you,
2. God looks with favor on all the just, and saves them in their cri - sis and need.
3. The just will find help when they cry out in distress, in God's name and peace when distress has as - sailed,
4. Troubles aplenty have fal - len upon them, but their deliverance appears as a dream un - ful - filled.

1. rejoicing in you for you show me your com - pas - sion, have you not claimed to be God of the Outcast?
2. The wicked shall wither as rage consumes them, their memory erased from the face of the earth.
3. Who is their hope when their hearts have been broken? Who will bring healing when spir - its are crushed?
4. Yet One is at hand to watch ov - er them, not one shall be broken with - out God's pro - tection!
