

Taste And See

Responsorial Song from Psalm 34 for Sunday 21B

Tony Barr

Cantor/All

The image shows the first line of musical notation for the song. It is written on a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of a series of quarter and eighth notes. Below the staff, the lyrics 'Taste and see, taste and see, taste and see, God is wis - d' are aligned with the notes.

I will sing in thanksgiving each moment of my life,
day after day I am mindful of you,
rejoicing in you for your love and companionship,
for you have not claimed to be Lord of the universe,
but you will favor those who are just,
attending to them in their crisis and need.
The wicked shall with their rage turn upon them,
their memory shall be erased from the face of the earth.

The just will find help when they cry out in anguish,
and God they find peace when distress has assailed.
Who is their hope when their hearts have been broken?
Who will bring healing when spirits are crushed?.

Troubles aplenty have fallen upon them,
deliverance appears as a dream unfulfilled.
Yet One is at hand to watch over their bones,
not one shall be broken with God's protection!
