

The Things We Have Heard And Remember

Responsorial Psalm 78 for Sunday 18B

Tony Barr

Feed us with bread from heav - en, and thou wilt for

1. The things we have heard and remember, we handed down many in the desert, the things that our stories have told us, as the food which would keep us from dying.
we hand them down into our children's ears, of the God of the King among the nations.
Who gave us the bread of Immortals, who made flowing streams in the desert,
who called us, led us to the mountain, who prepared there a place for our dwelling.
2. Who rode on the wings of the wind, who searched in the sky, who opened the window of heaven, who sent down rain and snow, who made the wheat flourish,
who gave us the bread of Immortals,
who made flowing streams in the desert,
who called us, led us to the mountain,
who prepared there a place for our dwelling.
