

I Will Walk In The Presence Of God

Responsorial Song from Psalm 116 for Sunday 24B

Tony Barr

All

I will walk in the pres - ence of the land - ing.

How I love God, who has heard me
when I cried in my distress,
leading my feet into safety,
dragging me away from destruction.

Death and its bonds held me,
but the abyss of death could not reach me.
Sadness and sorrow consumed me,
then I groaned, "O God, come release me!"

Our God is just, full of mercy,
reaching out, taking my hand.
His word is hope for the lowly,
and whose touch is my consolation.

Who, from the grave, has released me,
cleansing me, drying my tears.
Who guides my way lest I stumble,
walking through the land of the living.
