

How Good It Is To Give Thanks

Responsorial Song from Psalm 92 for Sunday 8C

Tony Barr

Kind is our God, rich in mercy.

How good it is to give you thanks,
good to sing your name,
good to proclaim your love at dawn,
and savor your faithfulness through the nightfall.

See how the just are flourishing, and how many are increasing like oaks,
growing like cedars,
flowing like streams.

All are nourished from God's house, and shall flourish each day at sunrise.

They shall be fruitful in old age,
strong in bone and blood, tuning their lives to hear God's word, the Rock of their protection.
