

To You, O Lord

First Sunday of Advent (Year C)

David A. Gatwood

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'To You, O Lord'. It consists of two staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef. The lyrics are: 'To you, O Lord, I lift my soul. To Al - you, O Lord, I lift my soul. Al - le - lu - ia!'. There are some markings in the score, including a '3' above a triplet of notes and a dashed line indicating a slur or breath mark.

1. Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; do not hide your face from me. Teach me your paths, O LORD; let your truth and righteousness guide me. Guide me in your faithfulness and love, for you are God my savior. Do not let me be put to shame, O LORD, and do not let my enemies gloat over me. For you are God my savior, and for you I wait all day.
3. All the paths of the LORD are kindness and constancy toward those who keep his covenant and his decrees. The friendship of the LORD is with those who fear him, and his covenant, for their instruction.

Good and upright is the LORD;
he loves righteousness.
He guides the humble to justice,
and teaches the humble his way.
