

Psalm 69: Lord, In Your Great Love

Todd Mesler, Jr.

C C/B Am G

Lord, in your great love, ans - wer me, ans - wer

5 C G

1. For your sake I bear insult, and shame covers my face
 2. Insult has broken my heart, and I am weak,
 3. I will praise the name of God in song,

7 F Am

I have become an outcast to my brothers, a stranger to my friends;
 I looked for sympathy, but there was none;
 and I will glorify him with my voice, for he has not refused giving:

9 C G

because zeal for your house consumes me,
 for consolers, not one could be found for me;
 "See, you lowly ones, and be glad, for the LORD your God has taken your hearts and he has redeemed your hearts. He has not refused to give life!

11 F C

and the insults of those who blaspheme you fall on me.
 Rather they have afflicted me, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
 For the LORD has not despised me, nor has he despised those who are in bonds; he has not refused to answer me.
 Rather they have afflicted me, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
 For the LORD has not refused to answer me, nor has he despised those who are in bonds; he has not refused to give life.
