

How Great Is Your Name

Responsorial Song from Psalm 8 for Trinity Year C

Tony Barr

How great is your name through-out the earth, and how many more us. —

Your majesty shines in the heavens, while you open the tongue of the mute.
A song is heard rising to name you, as you silence the clamor of combat.

As of old, almost as you intoned us, the crown of glory in splendor and with mandate, with the
for the world you have placed at our feet,

I look to the pans of your heavens, to the moon, the stars, the planets of space, And here we have seen, not remembered, the children of man, with their thrill full fields in their flora and fauna.

with the wild beasts, untethered and free, and birds which cavort in the branches, with the wonders which glide in the deep.

All this you have placed in our hands, that we nourish, protect what you share.
All things you entrust to our keeping, from the ground to the Cosmos beyond.
