

You Are A Priest For Ever

Responsorial Song from Psalm 110 for Corpus Christi [C]

Tony Barr

You are a priest for ever, s ch - nize - of

I was called by the Living One

"Sit here by my right hand, while I reduce your enemies,
a stool to my feet."

God, for you are subduing who threaten you, the proud heart broken in the neath the

"Children of light, you are born to me eternal youth is mine my right hand is your strength."

"Yes, a priest like Melchizedek, you shall be for ever.
This is the promise I make to you,
my word is to be trusted."

With this pow'r may you prosper, and win the hearts of nations.
From desert streams shall you have your fill and drink of sweetest victory.
