

I WILL SING OF GOD, TRIUMPHANT IN GLORY

Responsorial Song from Exodus 15 for Pentecost 3, Easter Vigil
for Psalmist (Cantors) with Assembly & Descant with Keyboard & Flute

TONY BARR

*I will sing your Name,
victorious, triumphant,
radiant in glory!*

I will sing of God, triumphant in glory;
horse and rider were cast into the sea
My strength, my courage is from God,
the Only One, my Savior.
This is the God in whom I praise,
in whom my people find the consolation.

For God is a warrior, a Hero and!
Pharaoh's soldiers and chariots were cast into the sea,
the flower of his army submerged in the Red Sea!
The walls of water surrounded them,
they sank to the depths of the sea!

Your right hand, O God, magnified in power,
your right hand, O God, has shattered the enemy.
Oh how glorious your power,
You crushed the foe, you routed your captors!.

You brought us together to the land that you had redeemed,
and planted us on the mountain that you had promised them,
the holy ground, where you have made your home,
the sacred place which your hands have made,
where you shall reign forever unending.
