

You Speak Your Word Of Life

Responsorial Song from Psalm 19 for Reading 6, Easter Vigil

Tony Barr

How perfect the Law we receive,
sowing life in our heart.

The decrees of the Law last forever,
they are wisdom for the simple.

The commandments of the Law are just,
they are our delight.

The law is a light to guide us,
crystal clear, brightly shining in beauty.

How holy to live in awe,
showing rev'rence in all we do.
For the tenets we hold dearest
bring with truth, compassion and justice.

They are worth more than the purest gold,
than the golden sun from the east.
They are sweeter by far than all honey,
than fairest flower in the meadow.
