5 Am F

1. You turn man back to their sleep
2. You make an end of them in their death
3. Teach us to number our days a right,
4. Fill us at daybreak with your kindness,

saying, "Return, O child of man."
the next morning they are like the changing grass,
that we may gain wisdom on all hearts.
that we may shout for joy and gladness all days.

9 Am F

For a thousand years in your sight
Which at dawn springs up new,
Return, O LORD! long?
And may the gracious care of the LORD our God ours;

are as yesterday, as a watch of the night.
but by evening wilts and fades.
Have pity on your servants!
prosper the work of our hands for prosper the work of our hands!
