

I Have Waited In My Hope

Responsorial Song from Psalm 40 for Sunday 20C

Tony Barr

REFRAIN Psalmist (Cantor)

Hear my cry, Lord, my and come to my res - c

I have waited in my hope.
God, you listened to my cry,
who has stooped down to rescue me
from the pit which has claimed my life.

From the swamps you raised my hand,
and you set me on solid ground,
set a path for my feet to tread,
firm and level, now to do your will.

You have placed within me new faith
and words, praising your name anew.
How the nations look up on awe
at the wonders to gain their trust!

I am wretched in your sight,
yet your care for me is deep.
You have rescued me from all harm;
now come quickly, I need your help.
