

Should I Look To The Mountains

Responsorial Song from Psalm 121 for Sunday 29C

Tony Barr

Our help comes in the name of the Lord, the Lord who looks down from both heaven and earth.

Should I look to the mountains where there find my strength?
Must I reach to the ends of the earth for my protection?

The Lord will guide and keep us, our God will not sleep;
for the One who protects us keeps watch all whole night long!

Must the Lord scatter you from the heat of the sun and stand firm as the nightwatch, no terror shall appear!
