

Always, I Will Offer Thanksgiving

Responsorial Song from Psalm 34 for Sunday 30C

Tony Barr

Lis - ten now! The poor cry — out. An - swer them in their pain and distress.

Always I will offer thanksgiving
with songs of praise ever on my lips.
I delight in the Lord who saves me,
One who rewards the poor.

To the just turn the Lord's ear,
and to them in their every need.

But the wicked are treated with disdain,
no memory of them will remain on the earth.

The Lord is with the just in their anguish,
Who is hope for them in their time of trial.
Who is close to the broken hearted.

Yes! The oppressed know God's saving hand.
