

Sing, Sing My Soul In Thanksgiving

Responsorial Song from Psalm 103 for Sunday 24A

Tony Barr

Sing, sing my soul in thanksgiving,
with all my life I will honor God's name.
Sing, my soul, sing to the Lord,
and do not forget what the Lord has promised us.

Who will forgive our iniquities,
and keep us safe from harm?
Who will rescue us from death,
or return to us the fortune we once lost?

Slow to anger is the Lord,
never harboring resentment against us when we fall,
never condemning our guilt,
but forgiving the times we choose our own ways.

Great beyond highest heaven
is your mercy for us, as delight fills the heart.
Farther than East from the West,
you remove all offences away from us.
