

SING, SING OUT IN THANKSGIVING

Responsorial Song from Psalm 103 for Sunday 24A
for Psalmist (Cantor), Assembly & Descant with Keyboard, Flute & Guitar

TONY BARR

*Kind is our God, and full of mercy,
slow to anger yet rich in compassion.*

Sing, sing my soul in thanksgiving,
with all my life I will honor God's Name.
Sing, my soul, sing for joy,
and never forget what God has promised us.

Who will forgive wrongdoing,
or wipe tears away, keeping us safe from harm?
Who will restore us to health,
or return to our lives the fortune we once lost?

Slow, slow to anger is our God,
never harboring resentment against us when we
fall,
never condemning our guilt,
but forgiving the times we choose our own ways.

Great beyond highest heaven
is your mercy for us, as delight fills the heart.
Farther than East from the West,
