

For Your Sake, I Bear Shame And Insult

Responsorial Song form Psalm 69 for Sunday 12A

Tony Barr

1st time: Psalmist (Cantor) from the ambo

God, in your great _____ love, hear and an - swer me

For your sake I bear shame and insult;
as an outcast, I seek and find you.

Though the love of your house sustains me,
they mock me and raise their hands.

How I long for your mercy and favor,
and how your kindness you turn and answer.

With compassion you hear my pleading:
do not hope in vain as we seek your face.

Look for God, and you will find healing,
who shows favor to the discarded.

Heaven and earth sing and dance with gladness,
land and ocean and sky rejoice!
