It is I who deal death and give life

"I would have said, 'I will make an end of them and blot out their memory from men's memories,'
"Our own hand won the victory; the LORD had nothing to do with it."
"How could one man rout a thousand, or a few men put ten thousand to flight,
Close at hand is the day of their destruction and their doom is rushing up on them!
"Learn then that I, I alone, am God, and there is no god besides me.
I will sharpen my flashing sword, and my hand shall lay hold of my quiver,

Had I not feared the wrath of the LORD, I would have boasted that these foes would mistakenly boast."
For they are a people devoted to falsehood, having no understanding.
Unless it was because their king sold them and the LORD delivered them up?"
Surely, the LORD shall do justice for his people; on his servants he shall have pity.
It is I who deal both death and life, I who inflict wounds and heal them."
"With vengeance I will repay my foes and requite those who hate me."
