

Give Thanks to the Lord

Ps. 107:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9, R. v.1

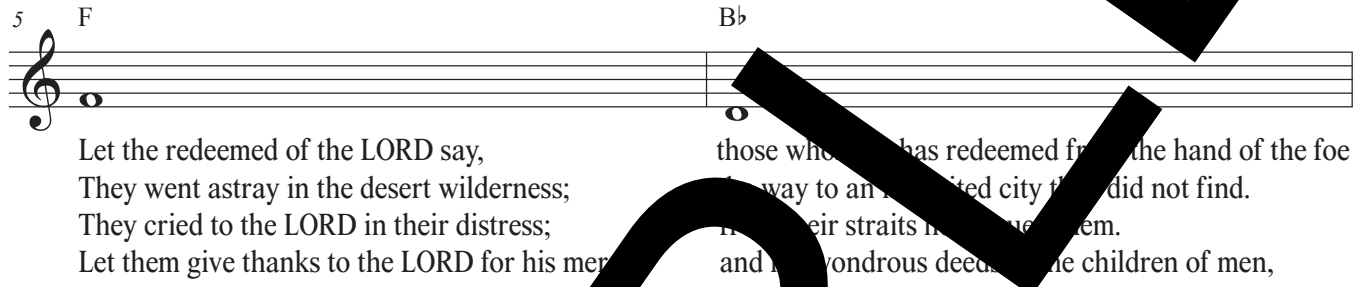

Orin Johnson

C C/E F G Am Am/G F G C

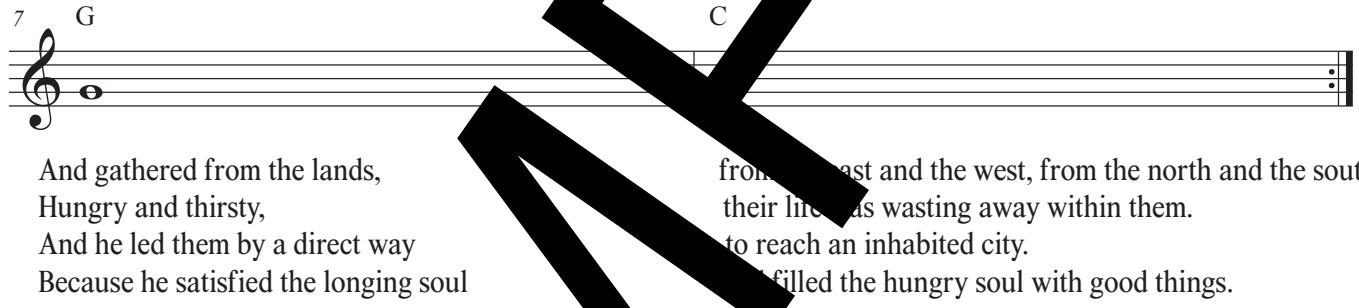

Give thanks to the Lord; his love is everlasting.

5 F Bb

Let the redeemed of the LORD say, those who has redeemed from the hand of the foe
They went astray in the desert wilderness; they way to an inhabited city they did not find.
They cried to the LORD in their distress; their straits brought them.
Let them give thanks to the LORD for his merciful and wondrous deeds for the children of men,

7 G C

And gathered from the lands, from east and the west, from the north and the south.
Hungry and thirsty, their life was wasting away within them.
And he led them by a direct way to reach an inhabited city.
Because he satisfied the longing soul, he filled the hungry soul with good things.
